Office of The Mayor
City of Reno, Nevada

Proclamation

WHEREAS, wild horses and burros are an integral part of the ecosystem and rangelands of the United States and the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, wild horses and burros helped to build this nation and are living symbols of freedom and our American Western heritage, as represented by the depiction of wild horses on the Nevada State quarter; and

WHEREAS, wild horses and burros are natural resources and cultural assets, and have the potential to promote tourism and job creation in this State; and

WHEREAS, building eco-sanctuaries that enable the public to view and photograph wild horses and burros may provide a much needed boost to the Nevada economy.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert A. Cashell, Sr., Mayor of the City of Reno, Nevada, do hereby proclaim

SUPPORT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF WILD HORSE AND BURRO RELATED ECOTOURISM IN NORTHERN NEVADA.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of the City of Reno, Nevada, this sixteenth day of April 2014.

Robert A. Cashell, Sr., Mayor
City of Reno
