

The Untraditional Feminist: Amy Hunter

McKinley Arts & Culture Center
Gallery West
March 10, 2014 – April 18, 2014

Gallery West at McKinley Arts & Culture Center hosts The Untraditional Feminist, an exhibition of photographs by Amy Hunter from March 10 through April 18, 2014.

The Untraditional Feminist is a subtle yet scathing critique on the historic roles of women in association with domestic responsibilities. Using dramatized images of conservatively dressed and faceless women subverting archetypal norms, Hunter expresses a defiance of the past yet without a distancing.

Hunter received her BFA from Utah State University's Caine College of the Arts and works in Reno, Nevada.
