

Black Rock Press: Student Work from the Black Rock Press

McKinley Arts & Culture Center – East and West Gallery

September 21st – October 2nd, 2015

Reception: October 1st, 5:00 – 7:00 pm

East and West galleries in McKinley Arts & Culture Center hosts Black Rock Press from the Art Department at the University of Nevada, Reno. Through its instructional programs, the Black Rock Press introduces students to the graphic arts techniques and intellectual disciplines involved with the creation of books, broadsides, and related materials. They are encouraged to develop an appreciation of the book as a special kind of object whose form can help reveal its contents. In Book Arts courses, students learn typographic design and letterpress printing as well as the historical aspects of printing and book production. Students are also taught other aspects of bookmaking including image-making techniques, bookbinding, papermaking, and paper decoration, which result in the creation of work as seen in this exhibition.
