

Empathy + Uncertainties: Lisa Kurt

McKinley Arts & Culture Center - West Gallery

October 8th – November 20th, 2015

Reception: October 8th, 5:00 – 7:00 pm

West Gallery in McKinley Arts & Culture Center hosts local artist and teacher Lisa Kurt. Empathy + Uncertainties is a collection of acrylic and mixed media on wood panel paintings. Through her work, she explores stories that involve people, animals, and creatures in mysterious settings, often incorporating nature and the unexpected. Her work entails traces of nostalgia, melancholy, and whimsical facets that allow a bit of mystery to remain. Lisa's work focuses on themes surrounding childhood, nature, memory, stories, mythologies, allegory, and dreams.

Lisa Kurt is an instructor in mixed media at the E. L. Cord Museum School at the Nevada Museum of Art, Reno. She received her BFA in Design and Illustration at the Massachusetts College of Art + Design. She also has been selected to present in multiple conferences around the Reno-Tahoe area.
