June 27th – August 12th 2016

Reception: July 7th, 2016 5:00-7:00 pm

West Gallery in McKinley Arts & Culture Center hosts local visual artist Jessica White. She creates portraits in oil and ink, respectively. Her early influences include narrative and sequential art. Currently, traditional portrait painting, film, and photography inform her work.

White's current series focuses on the desire for personal control as well as the compulsion to control oneself and others through image. Her portrait subjects, often women, depict struggles of autonomy and authority.

Jessica White's work has been viewed on the University of Nevada, Reno campus where she earned her BFA in 2014, and has been featured in the Reno News and Review that same year.
