SER0077131	Housing complaintSER0077131	Hello, I would like to file a housing complaint. My husband and I were tenants at of 2835 Glenwood Court, Reno, Nevada 89509. After confirming that the home was inhabitable due to excessive water damage and mold, we requested an early termination of our lease. The landlord, Heather Fisher, let us out of the lease but then retained most of our security deposit to compensate herself for her "burden." While I guess this matter should be pursued in small claims court, I would like to report the inhabitable conditions at the home as she is renting it again without any remediation, even after we made her aware of the unhealthy living conditions. We began notifying the landlord of moisture problems and suspected mold on August 6th,	2835 Glenwood Ct, Reno, NV 89509	Open	Code Enforcement	2025-01-15 11:00:43

Due to lack of response to mold issues and mounting mold-related symptoms among the household, we provided the landlord with 45 days notice on October 18, 2024 with our intention to vacate the home on November 31, 2024. Attached is the mold report. We use the ERMI mold report which is a research tool developed by the EPA and the most widely accepted test in determining the presence of mold.
