It's a weird area to explain it's in between the two buildings 2080 and 2090 Patton dr. There is a layer of trash piled up from years. It's not their backyard, I've talked to the owner of each building before due to a different issue in the past. This layer of trash smells and looks horrible. There is also a colony of cats and brand new kittens back there that I feed and these people put trash all up around the kittens to stop them from coming to get food. I know that the people know there are cats back there because I've heard them scare them off. Also, I'm not sure if I should write about this in this report, but these people that I see dumping stuff are also always screaming in their yard and house	2080 Patton Dr, Reno, NV 89512	Open	Code Enforcement	2025-05-27 14:39:06
