Mental Health Online Registry

Morning Media Update

For Immediate Release

10/8/2025

The Reno Police Department is introducing the Mental Health Online Registry (MHOR). A voluntary program designed to provide first responders with vital information about individuals' mental or physical health conditions. This resource helps police, fire, EMS, records staff, mental health clinicians, and dispatch personnel respond with greater safety, dignity, and effectiveness during emergencies.

Participants may submit details such as:

- Diagnoses that may impact behavior
- Preferred communication methods
- Known triggers or stressors
- Effective calming techniques
- Medical or safety considerations (e.g., seizures, mobility issues, dementia)

All information will be securely stored and accessible only to authorized first responders in the performance of their official duties. Information will not be shared with outside agencies without legal authority or consent. Community members who register for this program may opt out at any time.

To register, visit renopd.com/mhor. Submissions will be reviewed by our Mobile Outreach Safety Team (MOST) clinicians. Updates or removal requests can be directed to the RPD Mental Health Outreach Supervisor. This initiative is made possible through the collaboration of our MOST clinicians and reflects our commitment to trauma-informed care, compassion, and effective crisis response.
