

S.A.V.E. Training

- Attend a 2-hour Orientation
- Participate in a Ride-along with an RPD Officer
- Become Familiar with RPD's Radio Dispatch by Observing 9-1-1 Dispatchers
- Complete seven 4-hour Training Patrols with a SAVE Patrol Training Officer
- Attend a training session at the City Hall Information Desk
- Attend a 1-hour Training Meeting Each Month

Typical Duties Of A S.A.V.E. Officer

- Handicap Parking Enforcement
- Walking the Downtown Corridor as Goodwill Ambassadors
- Patrolling Shopping Centers
- Reno City Hall Information Desk
- Traffic Surveys - Radar Speed Monitoring
- Abandoned Vehicle Enforcement
- Patrolling at Reno Special Events such as Hot August Nights
- Patrolling Parks and Schools

Reno Police Dept. Volunteer Program for Seniors

Senior Auxiliary Volunteer
Effort (S.A.V.E.)

Act As Extra "Eyes and Ears" For The Reno Police

Reno Police Department
S.A.V.E. Office

911 Kuenzli Street
Reno, NV 89502

(775) 348-6925

Email: save@reno.gov

Webpage: tinyurl.com/rpdsave

What Is S.A.V.E.

- SAVE is a Volunteer Organization of the Reno Police Department
- SAVE Officers Relieve Reno Police Officers of Low-Risk Duties, Allowing the RPD Officers More Time for Crime Prevention
- SAVE was Organized in 1997
- SAVE has about 90 Active Volunteer Officers on Duty
- SAVE Officers Conduct Car Patrols Within the City of Reno
- SAVE Officers are Provided With a Badge and Uniform
- SAVE Performs Non-Confrontational Duties

S.A.V.E. Officers Volunteer An Average Of Over 20,000 Hours Annually To The Community

Report concerns within the City of Reno:
Reno Direct (775) 334-4636 reno.gov/community/reno-direct

Qualifications To Join S.A.V.E.

- 50 Years of Age or Older
- Ability to Communicate in a Non-Confrontational Manner
- Possession of a Valid Nevada Driver's License (Required to Drive or Ride in a SAVE Patrol Car) or a Valid Nevada Identification Card
- Ability to Communicate via Email and Cell Phone
- Considered to be in Good Health
- Willingness to Provide 16 Hours per Month of Volunteer Service
- Ability to find own transportation to and from the SAVE office
- Complete a Criminal Background Check