SER0117764	4650 Sierra Madre Dr - Lighting Issues / Rental Issues SER0117764	There is a light that is way too bright that I've asked to get fixed. When they did the work order the maintenance worker destroyed their landscaping and turned the light directly into my unit. I asked for them to fix it again and to file a complaint and they did everything in their power to stall me and threatened to evict me because they wanted to go home and I wanted to get this paperwork done before the end of the night. The next morning, I go in with the normal process and patiently wait about 35 minutes for the general manager to finish her task. Again, when I asked to file a formal complaint she said, "I can do whatever I want." She asked me to leave, and I said I'm not leaving until something gets done. She proceeded to call the police and I said, "Okay, I'll level with you. I'll wait for the police right outside." 		am I supposed to do when the light needs to be fixed and they're refusing to do their jobs? All I wanted to do is get the extremely bright light pointed away or gone completely. I'm aware it's a crime to shine bright lights into people's houses intentionally. This maintenance worker deliberately tilted the light to face my house. I have video footage of nearly the entire conversation with the general manager and the police along with pictures proving that the light was tilted deliberately towards my unit after asking them to fix it.

SER0117809	Service Request - No Utilities in RentalSER0117809	I'm in apartment J3071 and have been without heat for now 2 weeks. I've called the office multiple times, wrote an email to which was told "don't email with matters as some of us might not be working. Always call the maintenance line". Well I've done that between 5-10 times over the last two weeks. I have A ring doorbell so I know No one's been there when I'm gone & the heater is still not working. I've spoke to 1 live person on Wednesday 2/4/26 and she said someone would be going by that day & if they couldn't fix it the heater company would come out the following day 2/5/26. Well maintenance never came by on 2/4 so heater company was never called to come by on 2/5. SER0117854	130 Martin St Unit B SER0117854	To the Reno Direct and Building Code Teams,  I am a resident at 130 Martin St (Unit B, basement with rear alley ingress) and am writing to request a rental safety inspection of my rental unit due to an immediate fire concern.  Specifically, one of the two bedrooms is heated by an in-wall box-type heater (I apologize if this is not specific enough as I'm not familiar with the industry terms). I have just connected the dots that when this unit is in operation, lamps on the circuit dim and occasionally flutter or flicker, returning to full light when the unit is cycled off.  I would normally attempt to notify the property owner first but he told me via phone call this week that "it's just how old houses are" when I brought up for the first time in my tenure an ongoing issue resulting from inherent structural	130 Martin St, Reno, NV 89509	Open	Code Enforcement	2026-02-09 09:19:57

And he also stated on the phone: "I didn't read all the texts you sent" about my reasonable documentation of the complaint. Owing to both the unknown degree of hazard and the established expectation of further negligence from the owner, I hope I can benefit from your guidance on scheduling a residential inspection on this basis. I rely on and appreciate your expertise in navigating next steps. I am sorry to be writing again outside of business hours, but there is a development concerning the fundamental safety of my rental residence which I believe warrants a more urgent response. The issue with the heater outlined in my initial message to you

		last night has me thinking more about fire safety and what I would do if the worst case scenario did happen. This led me to take a more critical eye to my surroundings, resources, and plans of action, and I have discovered the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The 1st bedroom window does not slide open all the way even with significant force applied which would make it impossible to escape through in the event of an emergency.</li> <li>2. The 2nd bedroom window is double-layered, with the interior layer being a hinge-top framed glass pane style. This is an obstacle to reaching the exterior window—let alone operating and attempting to escape through it—in the event of an emergency.</li> <li>3. Its leaned up against the garage and I think that three of the cars (red in garden, black pickup and blue pickup) have not moved for at least six months. Now in the last month they have had a lot more cars coming and going so that there are always cars parked behind the junkers and in the street. Today I counted a total of seven that belong to the house. And as I was counting I watched a vehicle that is usually at the house drive out of their driveway, over the lawn and down the neighbor's driveway (they cut down the trees that would have been in the way last summer) and then another vehicle drive up the neighbor's driveway, across the lawn and into the space previously occupied by	12180 Camel Rock Dr, Reno, NV 89506	Open	Code Enforcement	2026-02-12 14:45:52
